While I do not agree with the contents of your email you are certainly correct in that you are entitled to a response. We are meeting later today and we will reach out to you early next week to discuss this and hopefully resolve it.

Sorry for the delay

Best regards

Larry, I am not quite sure what is going on, but it's been over a year, and we have been paying Charlie's severance in good faith. We need to get this resolved.

Larry,

I hope all is well and that you had a great thanksgiving.

I never heard back from you related to wrapping up Charlie's Employment Agreement. As I keep reading news about Charlie's endeavors in the world of global football (links below) it makes me assume that this is why I didn't hear back. The Serie A office role is competitive with Relevant's core business. I am happy for Charlie that he is busy driving his career forward, but would like to resolve the agreement so there is no confusion on competitive businesses.

Do you have time to speak in the next few days?

Thanks,

Danny
